Cost Of Living Up So Aged Couple Weds

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—James T. Higgins, 92, and his bride, August, 79, were honeymooning today and said their romance blossomed into marriage because "two can live as cheaply as one." It was "love at first sight" the bride said, recalling their first meeting a few months ago, but both the bride and the bridegroom said the decision to wed was helped by the rising cost of living.

Labor Day Visitors Pack All Holiday Facilities Here

Jammed hotels, restaurants, airplanes, coastal ships, buses, highways, beaches, golf courses and other holiday haunts bore testimony Monday to one of the busiest Labor Day holidays Victoria and Vancouver Island have ever experienced.

Early Monday afternoon saw crowds of U.S. visitors milling into other crowds of outgoing Canadian mainlanders. Many returned to Vancouver earlier than intended because of the acute shortage of berthing accommodation on the night boat.

All airline flights were booked to capacity. Vancouver Island Coach Lines reported the heaviest week-end experienced in many years. G. C. Parrott, general superintendent, said every available piece of equipment was out on the highways. A special service was put on for the Saanichton Fair and other regular runs were supplemented with extra equipment.

The weather, unexpectedly good, persuaded many who had been dubious before to go to the country. The Island Highway carried a steady stream of cars, motor-bikes and bicycles up island and down island. Boat-houses spent a busy day renting out boats and all resorts hummed with activity.

31 Wives, Children On Way To Island

Twenty-seven dependents of Victoria and Island servicemen were listed today by Military District Headquarters as aboard the liner Aquitania, scheduled to arrive at Halifax Wednesday. Four, Mrs. Sybil Start and Brian, and Mrs. Annie Braithan and Heather, were listed as aboard the liner Queen Mary, which docked at Halifax Aug. 31.

Those aboard the Aquitania are Mrs. Wenda Gray, 1410 Thurlow; Mrs. Hilda Fowler, Courtenay; Mrs. Rooston, Ladysmith; Mrs. Annie Johnston, Nanaimo; Mrs. Helena Donahue, Parksville; Mrs. Anna Fairley, Port Alberni; Mrs. Celina Mosby, Port Alberni; Mrs. Marie Van Bergen, Port Alberni; Mrs. Doreen Bompas and David, Saanichton; Mrs. Idina Kirby, Sandwick; Mrs. Johanna Tobaryk, Cowichan Station.

Mrs. Jansje Bullen, Langford; Mrs. Vera Chatfield, 1160 Hillside; Mrs. Simone Cornwall, 584 Vincent; Mrs. Therese Douglas, 665 Byng; Mrs. Elsie Glenn, 173 Hampton; Mrs. Maria Harmston, 1400 Monterey; Mrs. Paulina Hoffman, 1512 Amphion; Mrs. Winifred Howard, 2713 Avebury; Mrs. Kornelia Perry, 1354 Pandora; Mrs. Margaret Smith, 1430 Begbie; Mrs. Mildred Reynolds, Royal Oak; Mrs. Marjorie Stephenson, 970 Argyle; Mrs. Doris Thomas, 1054 Pandora; Mrs. Monica Bacon, 1631 Myrtle; and Mrs. Frances Hudgin, 1122 Balmoral.

Meeting Next Month To Study Labor Code

OTTAWA (CP)—Provincial Labor Ministers will be invited to Ottawa early in October to participate in discussions aimed at writing a peacetime national labor code. The federal Labor Minister, Mr. Mitchell, is expected to invite provincial Labor Ministers to meet him about Oct. 7 to consider the legislation.

During the war the Dominion, with the authority of special wartime regulations, inaugurated the first Canadian labor code, which provided for compulsory collective bargaining and required employers to bargain "in good faith" with unions which were recognized by a provincial or National Labor Relations Board as representing a majority of the employees.

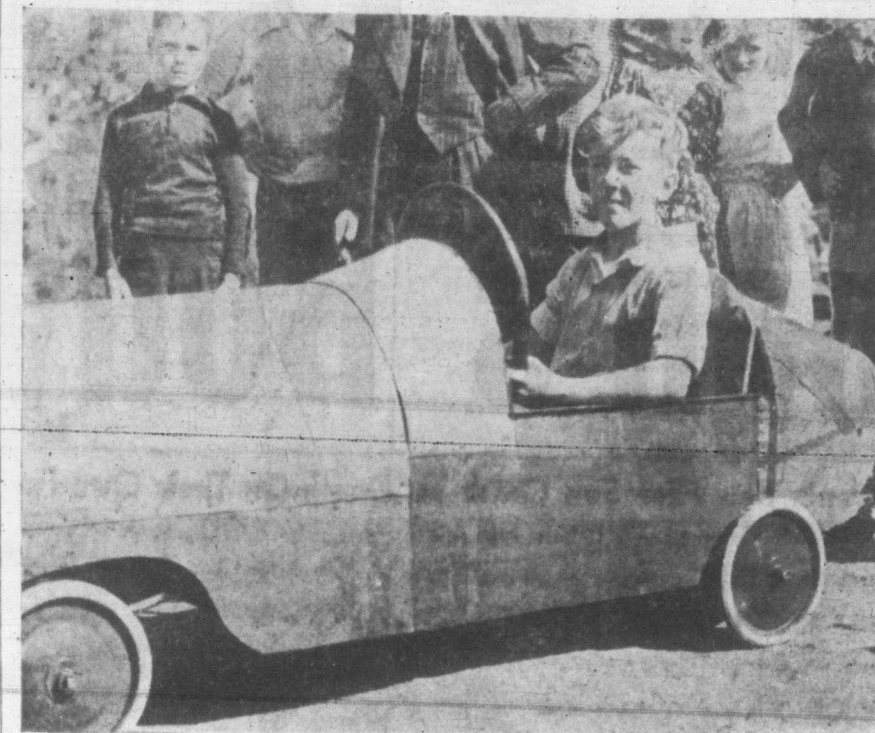

That federal code had been made possible only by action of the provinces in abrogating their jurisdiction for the period of the war.

The Commons industrial relations committee, which investigated the general problem of industrial unrest, has gone on record in favor of a national labor code. It had heard suggestions the code should be implemented by the Dominion, leaving adoption to the provinces which believe they should apply it.

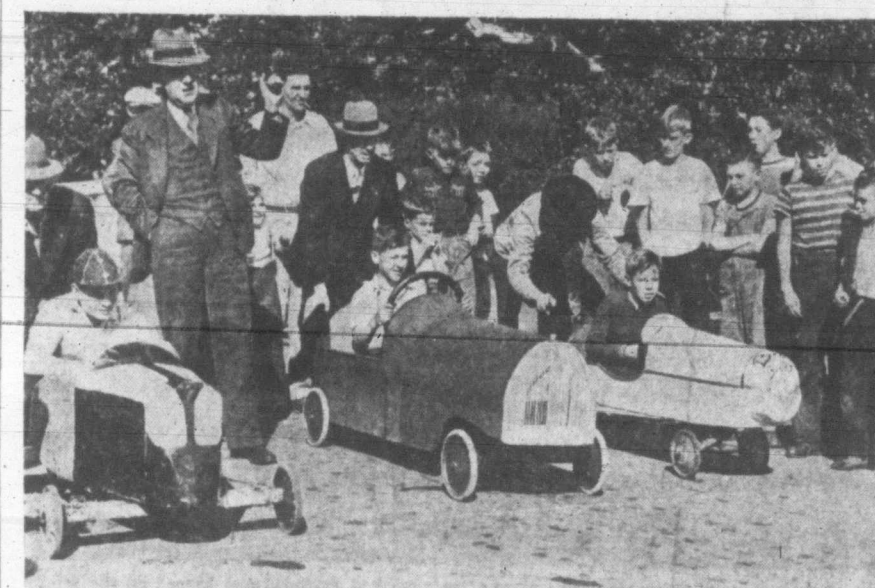

Two Boys Drowned In River Up-Island

COURTENAY (CP)—Two boys were drowned in Black Creek, 10 miles northwest of here, Sunday after one had got into difficulties in the water. Port Alberni Plans New School Building

PORT ALBERNI—School board officials have indicated that a new school may soon be built due to the overcrowded conditions now prevailing in Alberni district schools.

Over two thousand school children returned to school today but approximately 600 pupils have had to move into six huts at the army camp. It was explained that the shortage of accommodations was due to the increased population of Alberni district which has nearly doubled itself during the past two years.

Two years ago a school building project was drafted for the district but the plan is now obsolete because of the rapid increase in population, a school board official said. He added that the new building project would make allowance for a further increase of population.

Prince Rupert Park Named For Roosevelt

PRINCE RUPERT (CP)—Acropolis Hill, where United States army forces were stationed during the Second Great War, Monday was renamed Franklin D. Roosevelt Park in memory of the late President.

The dedication of a cairn at the park was attended by Canadian and U.S. government officials and civic and provincial representatives.

Gen. David Hays of San Francisco represented the United States, and in the harbor on a courtesy visit was the U.S. cruiser Tucson.

L.P.P. Ex-Organizer Expelled In Calgary

CALGARY (CP)—Sources close to the Labor Progressive Party in Calgary disclosed Monday night the expulsion of Pat Lenihan, one-time provincial organizer, from party ranks but gave no details except to say it was not on policy grounds.

Lenihan was once a Calgary alderman for a short time and now is employed by the Calgary Parks Department.

His expulsion from the party was the latest in a number of changes in Labor Progressive organization here in the last year. Party sources have denied the changes are linked with "revisionism," which has shaken the Communist Party in the United States.

The City Water Board will recommend that the City Council refuse liability on a claim for damages of $1,359 by the B.C. Electric Railway Company, Ald. J. A. Worthington, chairman, said today. The company claimed that failure of a 30-inch valve at Goldstream caused damage to its power plant. The Water Board contends that the failure of the valve was caused by extra pressure put on it by the company's workmen, and not because of neg-

Planes For British

SEATTLE (AP)—William M. Allen, president of the Boeing Aircraft Company, announced here the firm would build six of its Stratocruisers for the British Overseas Corporation for 1947 delivery.

Greeks Vote 2-1 To Recall King 11 Die In Riots; Blame Leftists

LONDON (AP)—King George II of Greece, described by a confidant as "a very happy man" today, intends to return to Athens in two or three weeks, a government spokesman said, thus ending his second exile since 1924. The returns from Sunday's plebiscite on the monarch's return to his throne were still running at better than two to one for King George, the count, with 67 per cent of the vote reported, being 649,705 in favor of the monarchy to 254,787 against.

Dispatches from Paris said Premier Constantine Tsaldaris of Greece, now attending the Peace Conference, might confer with the King today or tomorrow. The influential Times of London viewed the result, of the plebiscite as a signal for the withdrawal of British guardship and the assumption by the Greek government of full responsibility for the peace and welfare of the country.

The Daily Telegraph, Conservative, called the result of the balloting a rebuff to Russia and Communist "autocracy." The Communist Daily Worker commented, on the other hand, that Greece was "no longer an independent country—it is a British colony."

And as King George prepared to end his five years of exile, the Admiralty announced that a British battle fleet would follow a United States naval force into the waters off Greece about Sept. 18. The United States aircraft carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt will send 123 fighting planes to write "F.D.-4" in the skies over Athens Thursday, but the British fleet will approach much nearer to the diplomatic "sore spot" of the Dardanelles than the United States force.

The American fleet's visit to Greece has been the subject of much hot language by Russian diplomats and the Soviet press. Dispatches from Greece said the plebiscite was marked by widespread riots. Eleven deaths were attributed to political violence by Greek officials.

The ministry of public order said a number of Communist attacks were made during the day, and that Communist bands were repulsed in an unsuccessful attempt to prevent voting in Larissa and Mitsi.

Four persons described as bandits were reported killed in an attack on a gendarmerie station near Kozani. Another attack was reported on a police station near the town.

Tax Collections Up

Tax collections are beginning to forge ahead of the figure for last year, which set an all-time record in Victoria, according to figures from the assessor-collector's office.

To date this year $1,060,709 has been paid on the 1946 levy of $1,693,857, while for the first eight months of 1945 $1,040,544 was paid on a levy of $1,658,469.

Collection of arrears is also well up, with $55,372 having been paid this year, on a comparatively small hold-over from last year. In the 1945 period, $58,501 was paid in arrears.

Ottawa Negotiations Failing, Farm Strike Set To Start Friday

EDMONTON (CP)—A delivery strike by 20,000 Alberta farmers and another estimated 83,000 in Saskatchewan—a tie-up which could have a far-reaching effect on the agricultural market of the two provinces—was called for today as the Alberta Farmers' Union moved for a "show-down" with the Dominion government on its demands for parity prices.

The executive and board of directors of the A.F.U. voted to call the strike in Alberta at midnight next Friday.

The decision was made at an eight-hour meeting here Monday night and A.F.U. President Carl J. Stimpfle, a farmer himself who came from Arkansas in 1914, said the 20,000 union farmers would be joined by an estimated 83,000 members of the Saskatchewan section of the United Farmers of Canada.

The tall, stocky A.F.U. president said his organization regretted the strike action, but recent talks with ministers at Ottawa had not been satisfactory. However, the door was not yet closed to negotiations.

MESSAGE TO PREMIER

A telegram was being sent to Prime Minister King urging reconsideration and reiterating the union's demands for a fact-finding board on parity prices.

Abolition of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange and an adjustment of wheat prices based on $1.35 a bushel net to the farmer, basis No. 1 Northern at Fort William, this to be effective for five years. The A.F.U. also seeks "satisfactory" floor prices for livestock, poultry and dairy products.

Should the strike become a reality, it would be the first in Alberta since 1926 when farmers of the Willingdon district staged a delivery strike over wheat prices. At that time roads were picketed and farmers who tried to deliver their wheat found it dumped. At one stage the strike developed into an egg battle between rival factions using truck-loads of eggs for ammunition.

A.F.U. officials have indicated the Sept. 6 strike would find rather than the one of their new district. "We can't make any unfair exceptions," was the only comment made by Mr. English as he carefully noted the particulars of each request for a change and promised to let the parents know his decision.

In Oak Bay schools medical examinations of all children starting school for the first time will be started Wednesday morning at Willows School, for beginners there, and held Thursday morning at Monterey School. Parents were asked by the medical health officer to be present at the examination. Arrangements will be made later for examination of pre-primary students, Mrs. H. A. Beckwith, school trustee for Oak Bay, said.

The A.F.U. president said this was not acceptable to the union since the Stabilization Board was primarily for stabilization of farm commodities when they fell below the floor price.

"What we wanted was a fact-finding board to determine parity prices—in other words, map a basis for a relationship between prices of commodities the farmer must buy to produce and the prices he gets for his products."

The delegation had also sought from the federal government a guarantee there would be no increase in the prices of machinery, oil and other farm commodities.

"They would not give us any such assurance," Mr. Stimpfle said.

Cameraman Rescues Drowning Friend

A naval staff employee, Aubrey Jones, owes his life today to the quick action of two local men following a narrow escape from drowning at Elk Lake early Monday night.

The two rescuers, where Stan Gill, Supreme Court registrar and Clarence Ferris, provincial government photographer.

The mishap occurred as Mr. Jones while raking weeds from a boathouse lost his balance and fell into the lake. Realizing the latter could not swim, Ferris, who was standing by, dived in fully clothed and with some difficulty managed to get his head above water. Mr. Gill, who was at the boathouse at the time, pulled the semi-unconscious victim out of the water.

Mr. Jones quickly recovered from the accident and this morning returned to his work feeling none the worse for his experience.

Big Stores Oppose Butcher Closing Law

A last-minute effort to have the Wednesday closing by-law for butcher stores shelved is being made this afternoon by D. M. Gordon, appearing before the City Council on behalf of Safeway Stores Ltd., David Spencer Ltd., Hudson's Bay Co., Cross Stores Ltd. and Ray's Ltd.

The by-law comes up for final reading today, and Mr. Gordon has petitioned to appear to oppose its passage.

Ald. H. M. Diggon, who opposed the by-law at its first reading, said he would move that the by-law be recommitted with a view to having it dropped altogether. "I am not trying in any way to interfere with hours of labor," he insisted, "but if a merchant is prepared to hire sufficient staff so that shifts can be staggered and no individual employee is worked more hours than the law requires, then I see no reason why his individual enterprise should be interfered with. I've Found Relief
From My Aching Joints
and Depressed Feelings"

What a world of comfort there is for the one who again feels bright and well after passing through dark days. Mrs. E. B. is just such a case. Here is her letter:—
"Although I'm not nearly so young as I used to be, I work very hard. But for several months back, I have been getting rheumatic pains combined with very depressed feelings. So I obtained a bottle of Kruschen and in a short time the effect was most encouraging. The aching joints, the depressed feelings, the sleeplessness and constipation were all relieved. I felt so much better—and so bright."
—Mrs. E. B.
Perhaps you have ailments like those which bothered Mrs. E. B. and if that is so, why not try the same treatment? Kruschen is a balanced combination of several mineral salts. This saline treatment aids elimination and supplies the body with minerals which may be lacking in the diet. The result is relief from constipation, sluggish feelings and depression. Take Kruschen faithfully for the next few weeks. Give it a chance to help you as it has helped others. Kruschen is procurable in two sizes at all drug stores: 25c. and 75c.

NOTICE

There Is a Shortage

As suppliers of building materials we believe it is our duty to advise the public of Victoria that the unprecedented demand for the following building materials is such that we strongly recommend that if essential housing and construction is not to be delayed, that these materials be used only on essential work.

A recent canvass of all suppliers of the undernoted materials has revealed that the supply position is critical, and though we are doing everything possible to ration materials so that all carrying out necessary work will get their share, the present situation unfortunately will continue for some months. However, we are glad to say that manufacturers generally are not allowing the current situation to affect in any way the quality of their merchandise.

The present situation is a result of a back-log of building which has extended over the past five years or more. Though manufacturers are producing more than ever before in their history, it has been impossible to keep pace with the building requirements. Building permits issued in Victoria and the surrounding municipalities show that the value of these certificates is six times greater than that issued in prewar years.

'MONTY' OF EL ALAMEIN

ALTHOUGH HIS RESTRICTED ITINerary will permit him to stay no more than a few hours in Victoria, Viscount Montgomery may rest assured that the people of this community will consider his visit tomorrow a red-letter event in their history. Like the rest of the free world, Victorians refer to the victor of El Alamein as "Monty"— a term of endearment made popular by those who served under him. Its simplicity, incidentally, is in striking contrast to the spectacular triumphs—after so many disappointments—he and his magnificent Eighth Army
scored in the North African desert wastes.
Nor is it necessary at this late stage to re-capitulate the numerous engagements, in Africa, and likewise the successful assault on Hitler's much-vaunted "Atlantic Wall," in which Canada's distinguished visitor's organizing ability played such a telling part.

Military experts and individual historians
will write their various chapters for inclusion in the final account of the war which almost put an end to civilization as we know
it. But there will be general agreement that Montgomery—meticulously "blue-printed"
and directed by the brilliant strategist who is now Canada's Governor-General—turned the tide against German might at a stage
when even a small success west of the Nile meant more than most people imagined to the men in charge of the Allied cause. The campaign in the eastern part of the Mediterranean area had bogged down within a few leagues of Alexandria; Rommel had been stopped at El Alamein; but this redoubtable Nazi commander was a force which "Monty"
at no time underestimated—save for the fact that "he repeats his tactics, and that's the way I'm going to get him."

Montgomery used the words in quotation marks to explain to the late Wendell Willkie
how, nearly four years ago, he had got the measure of the Fuehrer's favorite. And the commander of the famous "Eighth" was more than a little worried at that time, so much so that he took the visiting American on one side and asked him a favor that few army men would have thought the right thing to do. But "Monty" never considered himself bound by orthodoxy. As Mr. Wil-kie records in "One World," the book which the conferees at the Peace Conference in Paris ought to re-read:

"I was convinced from all I had seen and heard that he was not overestimating the importance of what he had accomplished and I was glad to do as he wished."

As many will recall, the "official Cairo spokesman" had issued so many glowing accounts of how well the campaign was progressing—most of them overdoing wishful thinking—that the public had begun to take them, quite rightly, with a large grain
of salt. So said Mr. Willkie:

"He accordingly called the representatives of the press to his headquarters and I told them
the results of the battle in the language which he and I had agreed upon in advance: 'Egypt is saved. Rommel is stopped and a beginning has been made on the task of throwing the Nazis out of Africa.' It was the first good news from the British side that these newspapers had had in a long time. They had been fooled many times and were wary."

Fate decreed that the author of those words could not live to assess Montgomery's equally brilliant part on the reduction of Hitler's "Festung Europa." It nevertheless fell to a compatriot, General of the Army Dwight Eisenhower, to add his tribute to the leadership of the man whom Victorians will welcome tomorrow. And it is to be hoped that those in charge of Wednesday's arrangements will see to it that the car in which our distinguished visitor will tour the city's streets is driven at a much slower pace than that which marked the final retreat of Rommel in Africa. Victorians will desire to give their plaudits to a great soldier full rein.

UNITED NATIONS ASSEMBLY

THERE MAY BE SOME REASON FOR
suspecting that many of the tactical operations which are creating such confusion
at the Peace Conference in Paris are due to the looming United Nations Assembly on September 23. Some nations, however, regard the United Nations Assembly as inferior to the Security Council merely because the latter is charged with maintaining peace.
They argue that those who have that responsibility must have the decision as to the factors which create war. From that they deduce that if the domestic affairs of a nation are such as to cause disruption, as in Greece, the Security Council has the right to intervene. Such a deduction naturally injects into the domestic policies of every nation the question of the support available
among the "Big Three" for questions which have nothing to do with international relations except in so far as they can be projected
by propaganda into "hot" domestic politics.
It is sometimes suggested that on this account the meeting of the United Nations Assembly should again be postponed, until such time as the 21 nations have agreed on peace treaties, and the "Big Three" on procedure.

While the spectacle in Paris may not have encouraged those who pin their faith

to the United Nations Assembly, it has not in any degree detracted from the fact that some members among the 21 conferring there are not anxious for the United Nations to meet at all. What they desire is to keep their power intact, which becomes very difficult if such questions as the veto, or even
"security," are to be openly debated in the Assembly. These give lip service to the general idea of the Charter as long as it does not interfere with their own conception of the new world. They feel that as long as the United Nations Assembly will only act on the recommendations of the Security Council,
they can continue to delay the approach to real peace by obstructive tactics.

The really important matter today is to relegate every question to its relative value
in the light of the United Nations Charter.
It is to be hoped that all the nations who desire to enter the new brotherhood should insist that there be no further delay in its meeting, and that when the Assembly comes to order questions of procedure will be relegated to their proper sphere of comparative insignificance.

GREECE WANTS MONARCH BACK

JUDGED BY THE TABULATED REturn as this is written, considerably more than half of those who voted on the plebiscite in Greece yesterday desire the return of the monarch, after an absence of nearly five and a half years. The distribution of the ballots so far shows a total of 649,705 in favor of King George's resumption of the Throne, with 254,787 advocating the establishment of a republican regime. These figures account for about 70 per cent of those who exercised their franchise.

After ruling his country for less than a year more than two decades ago, George II was obliged to flee his country—not for the same reason as on the last occasion in the early spring of 1941—and a Republic came into being through the plebiscite formula in 1924, which continued to operate until November, 1935. At that stage, however, the monarch was invited to return to Athens by an overwhelming expression on the part of the electorate, 1,491,982 voting for the restoration of the dynasty and only 32,454 for the retention of the Republic. All had gone tolerably well with the royal family and an authoritarian government until Nazi might obliged their hurried departure for a safer haven. They conducted their country's business from London until the defeat of the Axis; but the exit of the invaders was by no means the unanimous signal for the return of King George. Far from it! In the intervening period Greece has been another battleground for conflicting ideologies, partisan aspirations, and subject to external influences not always easy to define. While Sunday's plebiscite result, therefore, has clarified the domestic issue to the extent
which the figures reveal, it is obviously patent to the monarch that his return to Athens
may not be all sweet reason and light. Republican leaders, for example, already have announced their intention to "continue the battle for democracy."

Whether this declaration should be interpreted as a threat of more political turmoil,
or whether it presages a genuine effort to prevent any revival of a dictatorship on the lines laid down by the late General John Metaxas, only time will tell. Stable government in Greece, for domestic as well as for international reasons, is essential. If the return of King George can contribute to its establishment, so much the better, but the situation is still charged with political dynamite.

ENCOURAGING SIGN

GROUNDWORK FOR GENERAL SATISFAction were seen today in the large enrollment of students at all high schools
within the jurisdiction of the Great Victoria Board of Education. Such a condition had been anticipated by the authorities, who have relaxed no effort during the summer vacation period to reduce the incidental difficulties arising from implementation of the Cameron Report last term. How total figures will compare with those of the war and pre-war years will not be known until current surveys have been completed; but it is safe to assume that the dangerous drift from high school to immediate labor opportunities
has been checked.

During the emergencies of war there were many openings for youths in industries which required high production to meet urgent needs. It was natural that this condition should draw many from the classrooms to a field of service in which they acquired themselves well and for which they received substantial returns. With the manpower scarcity greatly reduced, however,
those young men and women might give serious thought now to the advantages of securing greater academic equipment for the vocations they wish to make their life's work. They have filled the breach and, in many cases, they have been well paid for their labors.

Now, they may see their younger brothers and sisters taking advantage of the educational opportunities afforded them.
They may weigh the results of such preparation against their precipitate entry into the labor market, and may be well advised to alter the course they have taken with an eye to a demand for higher standards
when the better educated enter the field.

The fact that the high schools are full
is an encouraging sign. It will be more encouraging still if the student body this year
discloses the return of many young people who left courses incomplete. They must realize that resumption of studies now will be much easier than it will be in a few years
when they have shouldered added responsibilities.

Voters are disgusted and indifferent,
which means the best organized machine
will win if neither party has an idea.

TOWARD A TRUCE

IT IS BEING SAID among diplomats that the present meeting in Paris is not a peace conference but an attempt to negotiate a truce between Russia and the western world. This may be said cynically but, in fact, there is much truth in it. The conference is studying laboriously the peace
treaties with the perimeter states of Europe
but its real business has turned out to be a test of possible agreement on much wider issues between Russia on one side and Britain and the United States on the other.
Such an agreement, at this point, can hardly represent a permanent peace settlement but it can become the basis of such an agreement later.

The test of rival claims and interests
at Paris now emerges in many places, each of them important enough in itself but all preliminary to the larger test of Germany.

FIRST, AND ON THE agenda of the present conference, is the test of trade in eastern Europe. The United States is insisting that the treaties with the eastern European enemy states shall provide for free access to the trade of the world economic zone which lives on the Danube waterway.
Russia, having welded this trade into its own economy by the techniques perfected in Germany before the war, rejects the American plan as economic imperialism. This issue will have to be faced and settled at Paris before any of the eastern European treaties can be signed.

Second, the same trial of strength arises
in the case of Trieste. The uneasy compromise of the Big Four—the international-ization of Trieste under the shadow of Yugoslavia's guns—suits neither Russia nor the western powers but it was the best plan
possible at the Foreign Minister's Conference
by all the Big Four but it is being bitterly attacked by Yugoslavia whose foreign policy is under the control of Russia. When American airplanes are shot out of the skies above Yugoslavia, when tension runs high in Trieste itself, the instability of the Trieste
settlement already is pretty clear.

THIRD, WHILE IT IS theoretically a separate problem for discussion later, the future of Germany keeps forcing itself upon the great powers for the obvious reason that it is the key to all other peace problems in Europe. In Germany, therefore, the largest test of the peace settlement already is appearing.

As if these explosive issues were not enough to challenge the Paris conference a more immediate and more dangerous clash
has now developed in the Middle East.
Russia's demand for actual unilateral control of the Dardanelles, the United States flat
rejection of this plan, Britain's evident support of the American position, all thrust the ancient problem of the Straits, often the cause of war in the past, once more before the powers. It is not the business of the Peace Conference. It does not come out of the recent war but out of a history long preceding it. Russia's plans in this region, however, cannot be ignored at Paris for they will be taken as a general indication of Russia's plans for the whole peace. They will show where Russia intends to draw the western boundary on its zone of power.

TO THE DARDANELLES another complication has been added in the last few days. British troops are standing on the borders of Iran to protect Britain's oil interests there and, more important, to protect Britain's strategic position in the whole Suez Canal area, the route to India. Russian troops in large numbers are reported in Iran's northern borders.

At the Dardanelles and in Iran, as in Italy and eastern Europe, both sides in the great debate are feeling out each other's motives and strength. Russia's method here is familiar. It advances into every weak spot and where it finds serious resistance it pauses short of precipitating a crisis, as it did in Trieste, in North Africa and in Iran.
Its tactics have succeeded over a vast area
from the Baltic to the Adriatic and also in Asia, but these tactics have raised a new and stronger resistance by the United States and Britain in all zones of trouble. The question which arises now out of the Paris deliberations is whether at some point Russia
will go too far.

THESE ACTUAL ADVANCES are accompanied in Paris by extraordinary propaganda efforts. Mr. Molotov has gone so far as to challenge the motives of Russia's Allies, to accuse them of attempting to make great profits out of the peace settlement, while the Russian press, Mr. Molotov's mouthpiece, goes much further and denounces American fascism and British imperialism. Russia continues to support the peace claims of all the enemy states which are under its domination while denouncing Italy, under British-American occupation, as a canker of fascism.
The territory in the hands of the West for the moment is all dangerous to the Russians.
The states which fought Russia in the war
but surrendered to her turn up at Paris as reformed, "democratic" and harmless.

Out of such a situation obviously no ideal peace treaties will come at this time. Like most of the peace treaties of history the eastern European treaties will be based less on principle than on the facts of power.
The total settlement will be indeed a truce between Russia and the West but such a truce can provide time in which a firm peace
can be established and then maintained, it is to be hoped, through the United Nations,
with the ultimate merging of two worlds
into one.

The formation of a world federation of states seems inevitable in the future—Dr.
Quo Tai-eh, Chinese delegate to UN Security Council.

SUPERVISED PLAY

The Gorge Park playground,
under the direction of the Saanich Recreational Council, has completed a most successful
six weeks' program.

Two hundred and five children
were registered who enjoyed supervised play five days a week.
The children made a quilt,
stuffed animals—and—dressed dolls. These were sent to Blair-vack Home in Scotland.
This was all made possible by the co-operation of the parents and many willing helpers. We

EDUCATION OF YOUNG

The annual re-opening of the school year prompts me to send along this letter with the hope that many of your readers will find in it an expression of their own thoughts on the matter of education.

Every thinking citizen recognizes the fact that in the education of the young, the state has a most significant and telling responsibility. Not a little of the muddled thinking and chaotic condition of mind of so many adults springs from a faulty basis of education. The old

Latin tag of Juvenal—"mens sana in corpore sano"—a sound mind in a healthy body—still holds true, except that we have shifted the emphasis and given the things of creature comforts
the first place, and relegated the discipline of the mind to the customs and habits which went out of date with the Victorian age.
No wonder that amongst so many of our young people, the conception of duty has given way
to the satisfaction of pleasure,
and the honoring of the pledged word has retreated before the conveniences of the individual.

Education must develop the whole man, and it is obvious that in order to do this, three objectives (at least) must be held in mind: (1) the school
must give physical training; (2)
it must develop and train the mind and increase the capacity of the mental powers; (3) it must include moral and spiritual training for (as one man has said) "not only must the tools
be properly used; they must be properly cared for as well."

It is my conviction that an

Build Your Beauty On Your Youth!

You're never too young to begin being beautiful... the smartest girl in the school is the girl who knows trigonometry and English II are all very well, but her face is her fortune... as far as first impressions go. She's the girl who makes up her mind to be lovelier with every year that passes and takes great care of her fresh, young face because she knows she'll never have another... she's the girl who meets her old schoolmates years afterwards and is told she doesn't look a day older. She's not surprised, because:

She Keeps Her Skin Immaculate

Cleansing every night, every time before she is on make-up or takes it off, using Ardena Cleansing Cream (if her skin is dry or normal), choosing Purifying Cream if her skin is oily. 1.25 to 3.50

She Keeps Her Skin Healthfully Braced

Using Ardena Skin Lotion to take off the evening Cream, applying it with brisk patting to helter-skelter circulation, always before applying make-up... and finding it delightful after exercise or in the weather, because it stimulates, cleanses, refreshes. 1.25 and 2.40

She Prefers to Have Pretty Hands

So she keeps them soft with Hand-o-Tonic. 1.25

A Frank Statement to Mothers

SCHOOL days bring problems to all growing boys and girls. They must adjust themselves to confinement within four walls; they must sustain long, patient hours of study with unflagging interest; they must meet the test of winter, with its extremes of damp and cold.

MILK IS VITAL

Health authorities agree that milk is the foundation-stone of a balanced, healthful diet. It is our chief dependable source of calcium, needed for sound bone and teeth. It supplies precious Vitamin A for keen eye-sight so vital to school studies, and, in fact, useful quantities of all the known vitamins except "D". Milk supplies protein of very high quality. The school child who is fed a balanced diet, including plenty of milk, is not only a healthier child...he is a brighter, keener and more efficient student.

Pasteurized for Your Protection

HOW MUCH MILK...AND WHEN?

The Canadian Council of Nutrition has expressed the minimum amounts of milk needed by children for health and efficiency. From 3 to 10 years of age, children should have a pint of milk daily; from 11 to 18 years, one and a half pints daily. For maximum health, however, the normal healthy child can utilize up to a quart a day with benefit. Children should drink milk both at meal-times and in between. It is especially important that every school lunch should include milk.

Hope Solution For Nursing Shortage

Hope that some solution might be found to the problem of the nursing shortage in hospitals was expressed by Provincial Secretary George S. Pearson in a letter to the City Council today.

In his letter, which was in answer to a resolution passed by the City Council asking that temporary permits to nurses holding certificates from provinces outside B.C. be extended, Mr. Pearson said: "The problem covered by your resolution is at the present time the subject of discussion between the Nursing Association and the Hospital Association."

The letter concluded: "It is hoped that some way may be found to overcome the problem that has arisen, though of course the Nursing Association is limited to some extent by the provisions of the act under which they are organized."

Expect Conversion Of Army Huts Soon

Possibility that a lease on the Tillicum Army Camp huts would be signed in a few days for conversion of them into emergency housing units, was expressed by Reeve A. G. Lambbrick of Saanich.

The reeve said B. G. Walker, regional director of Emergency Shelter will be in Victoria Wednesday to confer with a committee of the Saanich Council on the matter.

When the lease is signed, a sub-lease will be made immediately to the Canadian Legion which plans speedy conversion of the huts.

The camp when converted will accommodate approximately 20 families. The suites would average three rooms.

Traffic Accidents Result In Fines

First cases of dangerous driving to be heard in Oak Bay Police Court for more than two months resulted in convictions of two drivers.

Harry Harris was fined $35 on a charge resulting from a collision between his car and another car at Monterey and Central Avenues on Aug. 13. He took an undertaking not to drive for other than business purposes for three months.

James Burchett was fined $30 and his driver's license was suspended for one month on a charge which arose when his car collided with another car being towed behind a third car at Foul Bay Road and Haultain Street on Aug. 23.

G. I. Warren Proves Fishing Good Here

Used to waiting as long as a day to get one picture of a hooked fish, Roy Atkeson, staff photographer for the National Geographic Magazine, was quite happy as he clicked merrily away with his camera while George I. Warren, commissioner of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, busily pulled in 13 fish within the space of two hours.

The catch, in Saanich Arm consisted of five coho salmon, two jacksprings, two bass and four grise.

City Promised Light Supplies

Assurance that Victoria would get its full share of scarce supplies for its street lighting program was made to Ald. F. G. Mulliner, chairman of the street lighting committee, on his recent trip to Vancouver, where he interviewed manufacturers' representatives.

The supply houses promised to expedite delivery of certain items, such as copper wire, which are urgently needed for immediate installation of some lights approved in 1945, Ald. Mulliner said.

While in Vancouver he inspected new installations made in that city on residential streets, and investigated the plan in operation there whereby residential street lights are installed on a local improvement plan.

He asked that citizens of Victoria remain patient a little longer and not feel they are being neglected when individual requests for street lights are not taken care of immediately. "When our five-year plan is completed all districts in the city will have adequate street lighting," he said. "But we cannot go all over the city, spotting in individual lights here and there. The installation of lights must be done in an orderly fashion, district by district."

Kenneth Reid, street lighting superintendent, is still in Vancouver, consulting experts on technical details, Ald. Mulliner said.

B.C.E.R. Appointments

Two appointments in the transportation division of the B.C. Electric in Vancouver were announced today by E. W. Arnott, vice-president in charge of transportation.

S. Sigmundson was promoted to operations manager and will administer the tramways and interurban departments. Randolph M. Martin, former office assistant to Mr. Arnott, was named transit research engineer.

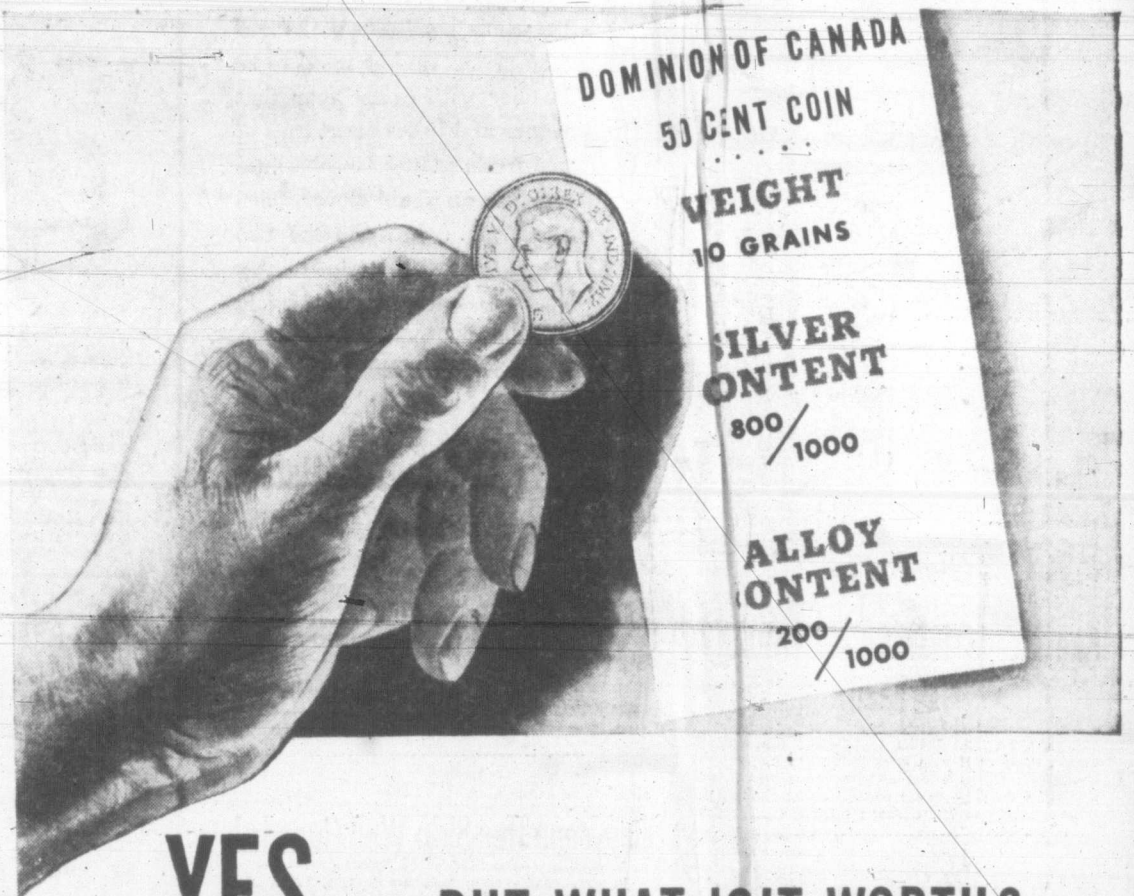

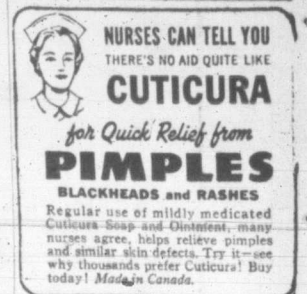

Assembly-Line Plan For U.C. Registration

VANCOUVER (CP) — University of British Columbia officials have no plans for a new "assembly-line" method of registration at the university armories to handle the more than 8,000 students expected to enroll this fall.

All students attending the university for the first time must register in person between Sept. 12 and 13. Others will be given until Sept. 20 to register.

The thick sauce, with the real, fruity flavor!

YES... BUT WHAT IS IT WORTH?

Little you care how much silver is contained in the 50 piece you take into a store. What you want to know is what it will buy.

Well, that depends very much on yourself, ourselves, and the millions of others like us. If free and careless spending brings inflation, your 50 piece will buy less and less as prices rise... how much less, no one can say.

You can guard against inflation... and, if you are a No. 1 citizen, you will.

How?... By conservation in your personal finances...

Here are five ways you can fight inflation:

- Hold on to your Victory Bonds
- Buy only those goods which are in fair supply and save your money for the day when goods now in short supply will be readily available
- Avoid black market purchases
- Keep up your insurance
- Build up your savings account

This means wise spending and wise saving.

This is conservation—the first requisite for personal security—the first attribute of good citizenship.

The Late
R. P. RITHET,
Founder of the Firm

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS OF PROGRESSIVE INTEGRITY

In the days of fort and fir tree, in Victoria's infancy, our founder laid the foundations of our firm on the bedrock of service, abreast and ahead of the times. Throughout the years succeeding officers of the organization have adhered to the policy of far-sighted development, breasting the waves of prosperity and depression, not merely growing with, but leaders in the growth of our city and province. Today, as in 1871, Rithet's is meeting current problems with modern forethought, and with unshaken faith in the future.

Today marks the 75th anniversary of the founding of our firm.

September 1, 1871, the late R. P. Rithet opened the doors of Welch,

Rithet & Company at 1117 Wharf Street, known in those days as

No. 3, Commercial Row, the same location occupied by our offices

today. His progressive policy was soon evidenced in his venture, scoffed at then, lauded later, when in 1882 he built his first ocean

pier. "Rithet's Folly," as it was first known, soon became a vital part of Victoria's development, with deep-sea shipping from all over the world docking to discharge and take on cargo. In 1888

the senior partner died and Mr. Rithet purchased his interests to control the rapidly-growing firm. Right from the inception of the business, insurance played the major role that it does today, and for many years merchandising and wholesale groceries were a dominant factor, while shipping was ever an important activity.

Not only in the business world, but in the civic and political field, was Mr. Rithet active. Mayor in 1885, he was senior M.L.A. for Victoria from 1894 to 1898. His death, in 1919, brought a brilliant career to an end. With the consolidation of the Rithet interests in 1921, finance and mortgage loans became increasingly important. Mr. Rithet left the institution he had founded in goods hands and, throughout the intervening years, Rithet Consolidated Limited, as it is now known, has continued an unbroken history of expansion and development, streamlined to meet modern conditions.

Quiet Ceremony At Belmont United

The marriage of Joan Kathleen, daughter of W. A. Lang and the late Mrs. Lang and Frederick James Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Johnston, 1613 Amphion Street was solemnized in a quiet ceremony by the Rev. H. W. Kerley at Belmont Avenue United Church Saturday afternoon.

The bride chose a three-piece ensemble in dark brown, with matching accessories and corsage bouquet of sweet peas and roses for her wedding costume. She was attended by Miss Kay Scott who wore a powder blue dressmaker suit with black accessories and corsage bouquet of heather, sweet peas and roses.

Douglas Dicker was best man. The bride and groom left immediately after the ceremony for a motor trip up-island. On their return they will make their home at 1170 Yates Street.

Fashionable Weddings Highlight Holiday Week-End

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Carlyle Hammond, who were married at St. John's Church Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Hammond, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gillespie, is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Todd and Mr. and Mrs. George Gillespie, pioneer Victoria families.

Lieut. Bernarr V. Crosby, R.C.N., and his bride, the former Miss Joan Cromack, pictured in the garden at Government House where the wedding reception was held, following their marriage at Christ Church Cathedral Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Crosby is the daughter of Capt. and Mrs. J. G. Cromack.

Rita Fecteau Bride Of Noel Pecknold

Rev. L. MacLellan solemnized the marriage of Miss Rita Marie Ernestine Fecteau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Fecteau, 530 Lampson Street and Noel Clifford Pecknold, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. V. Pecknold, 741 Lampson Street, at 8 p.m. Saturday amidst a colorful floral setting at Queen of Peace Church.

Mrs. A. Smith presided at the organ and Miss Betty Malenfant sang "Ave Maria" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride made a lovely picture in her traditional gown of slipper satin with lily point sleeves, French lace trimming the sweetheart neckline, and low waist. Cascading from a coronet of orange blossoms, her filmy veil of illusion net formed a long train. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations. Mrs. W. H. Eastland attended her sister as matron of honor in an off-the-shoulder gown of yellow net over taffeta trimmed in pale yellow velvet. The bridesmaid, Miss Maureen Pecknold, sister of the groom, chose a similar gown of pale green with velvet trim. Both attendants carried colonial bouquet of pale pink and white carnations and sweet peas.

Cyril Pecknold was best man and Adrian Pecknold and John Jickling ushered.

Mrs. Fecteau and Mrs. Pecknold assisted the couple in welcoming guests at a reception in the blue room Wardroom Mess at H.M.C.S. Naden, following the ceremony. The bride and groom cut a four-tier wedding cake centered on a table decorated with pink and white flowers. Lt. Cmdr. B. W. Fairweather, R.C.N., proposed the bride's toast.

For a honeymoon on the mainland and at Qualicum Beach, the bride changed to a turquoise suit with dolman sleeves, topped with a swaggar coat of white Clyde wool, cherry-toned purse, hat and shoes, completing her costume with a corsage bouquet of gardenias.

Mr. and Mrs. Pecknold will reside at 1315 Minto Avenue on their return.

Sheila Chambers Married Saturday

Saturday, at 8.30, in St. John's Church, Archdeacon N. Blunt united in marriage Sheila Gertrude Brand Chambers, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Earl Chambers, 426 Chester Street, and Palmer Maynard Nerland, second son of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Nerland, Medicine Hat, Alta.

Summer flowers decorated the altar and chancel rail. A. E. Chubb, church organist, played wedding music.

The bride, who is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chambers, early Victoria residents, chose for her wedding a gown of white slipper satin with raised applique of white orchids, styled with sweetheart neckline, lily point sleeves and full skirt, slightly en train. Her full length veil of illusion net was held with ostrich tips and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and American beauty roses. A string of pearls, the gift of the groom, was her only ornament. Mr. Chambers escorted his daughter to the altar.

Miss Elizabeth Paul, matron of honor, wore primrose yellow moire and carried lavender gladioli. The bridesmaids, Miss Miriam Alder and Miss Joyce Morley, were gown in rose orchid moire with bouquets of yellow gladioli.

A younger brother of the bride, Gordon Chambers, acted as best man, while ushers were John Rothwell, Lieut. R. E. S. Chambers and Oliver Nerland.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the main drawing-room at the Y.W.C.A., where the young couple received their guests before the fireplace flanked by chapel tapers and massed bouquets of gladioli. J. Loudoun proposed the bride's toast.

Leaving for a honeymoon in Seattle, Portland and Tacoma, the bride wore a dressmaker suit of brown and white check, brown topcoat, brown felt hat and brown lizard skin accessories. Her corsage bouquet was gardenias and roses.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Nerland will reside in Vancouver where the groom, who was flying officer in the famed Pathfinder Squadron and prisoner of war in Germany for 33 months, will resume studies at University of British Columbia.

Spends Holiday Leave Learning To Fly

Miss Blanche Cardinal, only W.D. member among 60 Victorians taking flying lessons at Patricia Bay with the Victoria Flying Club.

She started her leave this week-end and instead of going home to Meadow Lake, Sask., where her relatives live, she plans to spend "as much of the time as she can get" in the air. Last week she flew first dual, in a half-hour flight in a Piper Club and also a dual flight in a Tiger Moth. She is scheduled to solo some time this week.

Miss Cardinal entered the R.C. A.F. (W.D.) in Montreal in 1942 and has been stationed at Patricia Bay since July, 1943. There are eight other women members of the Victoria Flying Club.

Personal Notes

Dr. and Mrs. J. Dimery Johnson, who have been vacationing at Shawigan Lake for the month of August, have now returned to their Victoria home, 1235 Lyall Street.

John A. McCall and his daughter, Miss Barbara McCall of Rochester and Lake Luzerne Villa, N.Y., are guests of Miss Oriole Esme Faram, famed English pianist, now making her home in Victoria. Miss McCall has been acclaimed by the Latin American public as their harp, piano and violin stylist.

After a holiday spent visiting his parents in Victoria, Mr. Ian Galliford, former organist of St. John's Church, has returned to Toronto where he will assume duties as choirmaster and organist of St. Stephen's Church there. He will also join the music staff of Upper Canada College.

Victorians staying at Shawigan Beach Hotel Labor Day week-end were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Luney, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Clark and children, Robin and Nancy, Mrs. F. V. Longstaff, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Norrie, Mr. Gordon Norrie, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bachelor and Miss Bachelor, Mr. and Mrs. J. Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. George Tallamy, Mr. and Mrs. Speck, Miss Beryl Speck and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Craig.

Wilson Melville, who for the past two weeks has been the guest of his parents, Major and Mrs. W. W. Melville, Ten Mile Point, returned to Vancouver Monday where he will resume his studies at U.B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellison Queale entertained Sunday afternoon at Queenswood House, the home of Mrs. Kenneth Osler, with a garden party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard R. Fisher, their daughter, Gretta and their son, Carl, who are visiting here from Palo Alto, California.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Bulincx received the names, Nina Caroline, at a christening ceremony Sunday afternoon at St. Mark's Church. Rev. N. F. Noel officiated and godparents were Mrs. J. Hebdon Gillespie, Miss Selma Reyes and Mr. Mervin Cummings. Later, afternoon tea was served at the home of the baby's parents, 3851 Carey Road.

Guests from out-of-town who attended the Nerland-Chambers wedding Saturday night were: Mrs. O. M. Nerland, Roy and Oliver Nerland, Mrs. P. Anderson and daughter, Medicine Hat; Mr. and Mrs. J. Morley, Shawigan Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Brown, Portland, and Miss Elaine Kramer, Vancouver.

In honor of her daughter, Miss Rita Marie Fecteau, whose marriage took place Saturday, Mrs. P. A. Fecteau, 430 Lamson Street entertained at a trousseau and gift display tea recently. Mrs. H. W. V. Pecknold presided at the tea table, which was centred with sweet peas. Former associates of the bride-elect at the Bank of Montreal and other friends were also received later in the evening. Mrs. W. H. Eastland, sister of the bride, poured tea, assisted by Miss Maureen Pecknold, sister of the groom.

Miss Betty Bridge and Miss Pearl McAllister were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower held recently at the home of the latter, 854 Transit Road, in honor of Miss Nancy Drew, a September bride-elect. Mrs. W. G. Radford and Mrs. J. Bridge presided at the tea urns, and serving were Misses Jean Banks and Joan Comyn-Ching. Others invited were Mesdames S. McAllister, M. D. J. Mackenzie, M. Kerr, M. Miss Emma Dunnett Married In White

In a floral setting of white gladioli and fuchsia asters at Church of Our Lord, Miss Emma Ivy Dunnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Dunnett, 2865 Colquitz Avenue, exchanged marriage vows with John Maclellan Paterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Paterson, Express Road, Deep Cove. Rev. Donald L. Gordon performed the ceremony Saturday at 8.

At the organ was Philip Hughes and during the signing of the register L. Painter sang "Because."

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Don V. Bellamy, the bride wore a traditional gown of ivory satin with lily point sleeves and sweetheart neckline. A lace cornet held her veil of embroidered net which was slightly en train. She carried an ivory prayer-book topped with a mauve orchid.

Mrs. D. Bellamy, matron of honor, and Mrs. R. Johnston, Mrs. E. Shone and Miss Fenella Paterson, attendants, chose identical floor-length gowns of mulberry crepe featuring cap sleeves and sweetheart necklines. They wore matching crepe coronets trimmed with gold sequins, long mulberry net mitts, pearl necklets and carried colonial bouquets of white and mulberry flowers.

The best man was R. Johnston, and E. Shone and R. Anderson were ushers.

Following the ceremony, mothers of the bride and groom, Mrs. Dunnett and Mrs. Paterson, assisted the young couple in receiving guests at a reception held in the Britannia Hall, View Street.

Speech Therapy Clinic Set Up At Junior High School

In order to extend speech therapy to afflicted children of the entire Greater Victoria school district a central speech clinic is being established this year at the vacated health centre at the Central Junior High School, J. F. K. English, municipal inspector of schools, announced today.

Previously speech correction work, under the jurisdiction of Miss Marie C. Crickmay, who has been on the job in Victoria city schools since 1941, was carried on in the individual schools. However, Mr. English explained, because of the widely scattered district, and the disparity in ages and types of defect among the children in each school, it is considered more efficient to bring them in to the clinic.

It will be in session each school day from 1 to 5, and will also be available for the treatment of pre-school children with speech difficulties.

He pointed out that the importance of helping those who are handicapped by speech difficulties such as stammering, articulatory and voice disorders, cleft palate, and delayed speech development is slowly being re-organized.

First Woman Student Will Solo Shortly

The first woman student of the Victoria Flying Club, Blanche Cardinal of the R.C.A.F. (W.D.), is making excellent progress in her flying training and is expected to solo shortly, according to Instructor Dave Duncan.

The instructor told a meeting of the club that Miss Cardinal is one of six students now under instruction in the club's Tiger Moth and Piper Cub aircraft at Patricia Bay. He reported several former R.C.A.F. pilots are also taking dual instruction before flying solo again.

General meetings of the club will be held the last Friday of every month. The club decided to allow 20 minutes' free flying instruction to all new members, and to invite all former members of the old flying club to join the new organization.

GLOBAL SURVEY

Russia's direct-action tactics in her postwar dealings with the Western Allies have produced a powerful though wholly unforeseen flareback.

From the moment the Soviet Union joined battle with the Axis, the United Nations dropped all open expressions of hostility to the Communism which always had been a fearsome philosophy to adherents of western democracy. Russia was an ally, and nothing was to be said or done which would weaken the bond that held the United Nations together in the life or death struggle.

Indeed, the spirit of comradeship was so strong that it continued after the cease-fire order was given. It was a regular love-feast, and it began to look as though we were all one fine, big family.

Then came the Red direct-action which was registered not only in Moscow's unilateral methods of expanding the Soviet zones of influence, but in the Allied conferences.

The public reaction in the western democracies at first was one of amazement. This gave way to dismay and, shortly, to resentment, and then anger. At the outset the anger smoldered, but recently it has broken into full flame. The result is that there is a constantly increasing volume of criticism directed at Soviet tactics and at Communism itself. For example:

The week-end brought the two-fisted statement from Gen. MacArthur that Allied leadership in Japan "must adhere unflinchingly to the course now charted," staving off "regimentation under the extreme, radical left." He declared the question of which political concept will prevail "profoundly affects the destiny of all men and the future course of all civilization."

The week-end also brought a sensational statement from the six members of the military committee of the United States' House of Representatives who have been touring American bases in the Pacific. The expressed grave concern over Russia's intentions; and over the "imminent danger of another Pearl Harbor."

Some close observers believe criticism of Russia may have the effect of clearing the atmosphere in the long run. It may convince Russia that direct action won't gather any cherries in the Allied orchard. It might even persuade Moscow to change its tactics.

Trade Unions To Study Trend of Sound Films

The sound film, described as vital to the trade union movement, will be discussed at a meeting of the National Film Board in Victoria on Thursday.

To the meeting, which will be held at the Empress Hotel, two representatives of each trade union group in the city have been invited. The meeting will consider the future of the sound film in its relation to local trade unions.

Lt.-Cmdr. E. Boak Honored By Norway

Lt.-Cmdr. E. E. G. Boak, D.S.C., of Victoria, navigating officer aboard the 18,000-ton aircraft carrier Warrior, and wartime commanding officer of H.M.C.S. Sioux, has been honored with one of the oldest military orders in the world, Naval Service Headquarters in Ottawa announced Monday night.

The order, received for services in Norwegian waters while he was commanding the destroyer, is Knight of the First Class of the Royal Order of St. Olav—dating back to the 13th century.

The operation which earned the award took place in March, 1945, when the Sioux and three other destroyers were ordered to the Island Soroy in the mouth of Alten Fjord, to evacuate inhabitants who were under shellfire from the Germans.

Honor For Dr. Willis

An honorary degree of Doctor of Laws will be conferred on Dr. S. J. Willis, former Superintendent of Education for B.C., at the autumn congregation on Oct. 30. It was announced today by the president, Dr. N. A. M. MacKenzie.

Superintendent of education for 25 years, Dr. Willis retired from office in 1945. He leaves behind him a proud record of service. It was largely through his guidance that many features of the present Schools Act were passed by the Legislature.

B.C. Electric Discontinues Sale of Electrical and Gas Appliances

After September 3rd, make purchases through Retail Appliance Dealers

CULMINATING a ten-year policy of reducing the fields in which it sells electric and gas appliances, the B.C. Electric announces that it has now withdrawn from the appliance, equipment and lamp business. As originally operated, B.C. Electric stores sold appliances primarily to build up an acceptance of such labor saving devices and improve one of the company's main businesses, the supplying of electric and gas service.

In the early days, the lack of dealers made it imperative that the B.C. Electric should sell appliances. Now, however, with widespread use, existing stores are able to handle all sales and many new dealers, including veterans, have started up in business. This is particularly true since the end of the war and the B.C. Electric wants to do everything possible to encourage them.

Just as this company discontinued radio, washing machine and vacuum cleaner sales, and more recently all portable lamps and small appliances, it is now ceasing to sell electric and gas ranges, fires, water heaters, water pumps, refrigerators and lamp globes. A further reason is that with many of these appliances still in short supply, the B.C. Electric does not want to divert any of the available supply from dealers whether long-established or recently starting in business.

For your gas and electric appliances of any kind the B.C. Electric therefore refers you to any one of the many dependable and qualified stores selling such goods.

The Home Service Department, Home Lighting Department, House Wiring and Planning Service and Gas Burner Adjustment Service continue as in the past.

Boat Building Now Major Industry At Port Alberni

PORT ALBERNI—With scores of orders for the construction of trawlers, tugs, speedboats and smaller marine crafts, the ship-building industry which was practically of no importance in prewar days, has now become a major industry in this west coast city.

Three major boat building concerns have sprung up here during and since the war and indications are that the industry will continue to expand.

Bob Morey, proprietor of the Gulf Marine Shipbuilding Ltd., predicts that the boat building boom will last for another 10 years. He pointed out that since he opened his shop one year and six months ago he has been unable to cope with boat building requests. At the moment he has orders to build a tug boat for MacDonald Logging Company at Seattle, two trawlers and six 18-foot speedboats.

The Alberni Shipyard and the Alberni Engineering Works Limited have also disclosed that they have orders to build six tuna trawlers ranging from 35 to 40 feet long.

The Beurling Signs & Woodcraft Company have also announced that it intends to go in for boat building on a small scale. Proprietor Arvid Beurling, who has been chiefly dealing in signs and furniture, has announced that he intends to open a shop which will specialize on the construction of boats.

New Rural Buildings Must Now Register

The B.C. government has passed an order-in-council requiring that buildings of all types valued at more than $200 which have been completed on unorganized territory in B.C. since last Jan. 1 must be registered with provincial assessors for taxation purposes.

In future the owner of a building will be required to register with the assessors within 30 days after the occupancy or completion of the building. Buildings already completed or occupied since Jan. 1 must be registered within 60 days.

Penalty for failure to register is a fine up to $500 on the first offense and not less than $100 and not more than $1,000 for subsequent offenses.

The registration, which must be made on the form provided by the surveyor of taxation, requires that the owner give the location of his property, the acreage and value of it, along with the date at which the building was completed or occupied, along with the name of the contractor and cost of the building. Construction characteristics such as details on foundation, exterior finish, roof, basement, floors, interior finish, plumbing, chimneys, heating, lighting, number of floors, dimensions of the building must be listed.

The B.C. government has approved a 21-year lease, for which Surrey will pay $1 per year, to turn over to the district a block of land for park purposes.

Public Picks Radio Station By Program Not By Ownership

By Canadian Institute of Public Opinion.

TORONTO — While Parliamentarians and radio bigwigs warmly debate the future of Canadian radio, let's take a look at some of the aspects of radio as it affects average Canadians and their 2,000,000 odd radio sets. Here are some of the questions for which the Institute sought answers:

In view of the debate over CBC versus independent stations, do ordinary Canadians like one station better than another merely because one is CBC and the other isn't?

Do they have "favorite" radio stations anyway, and if so, why are they favorites?

On many national and international matters, Canadians have, in previous polls, been shown to be short on factual information (but not shorter than the populations of other countries). Is it the same with radio? Do they even know whether or not the stations they listen to are owned by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation or by private persons?

As a start, the Institute of Public Opinion asked: "Which is your favorite Canadian radio station?"

MOST HAVE FAVORITE

That Canadians do have a favorite radio station to a surprising extent is indicated by the fact that eight out of ten adults interviewed picked a favorite. Twenty per cent said they had no particular favorite.

Thirty-one per cent picked a CBC-operated station; 25 per cent picked an independent station not affiliated with CBC networks; 24 per cent named an independent station affiliated with CBC networks; 20 per cent had no choice.

It should be stressed here that this survey is in no way a "radio rating" or audience measurement yardstick, as the Institute's sample is a national one, and involves entirely different techniques.

The 80 per cent who did pick a favorite were then asked: "Do you happen to know whether this is an independent or a CBC station?"

Fifty-three per cent correctly identified their favorite station as either CBC or independent.

Twenty-seven per cent were wrong or didn't know, making a total of 80 per cent.

On what basis did this 80 per cent pick a "favorite"? To find out, these Canadians were asked: "Why do you prefer this station?"

By long odds, top reason had to do with the kind of program broadcast: its quality or the nature of the programs as between various kinds of music, talks and so on.

Next biggest factor in determining station preferences was the physical one of receptivity, embodying such answers as "It comes in the clearest" or "It is easy to get on my set."

The fact that the listener had no choice, or that he liked a certain station because of habit, or that one was an independent station and one a CBC station proved to be negligible factors. (World Copyright Reserved)

The City Council resolution regarding oil sludge on the beaches at Victoria has been referred to the Department of Transport for action, the council was informed today.

George Grant, new director of physical education for Victoria schools, will have his offices at the Education Centre in Central Junior High School, it was announced at the School Board of force today.

Administration Of Veterans' Land Act Severely Criticized

General feeling at the B.C. Conference of Citizens' Rehabilitation Councils this week, at Harrison Hot Springs, was that Department of Veterans' Affairs officials are carrying out a difficult job efficiently and conscientiously. Forrest L. Shaw, chairman of the Victoria Rehabilitation Council, said today.

However, he said, "the Veterans' Land Act administration in respect to both full-time farming and small holdings came in for very severe criticism."

"It was claimed," Mr. Shaw said, "that many veterans had been deprived of the benefits provided by the act through the failure of the department to complete deals after the veterans had chosen the land they required."

"A resolution was adopted asking the Ministers of Veterans' Affairs to make such changes in the administration as will lead to efficient administration of the act and regulations as written."

HOUSING DISCUSSED

Housing was discussed at length, and it was apparent the lack of suitable accommodation is common to nearly all parts of the province, Mr. Shaw said. "Although the delegates felt that this condition cannot be remedied by new buildings because of the lack of materials, it was claimed some relief could be provided by converting unused army huts," he reported.

"These huts being in the possession of War Assets Corporation, a resolution was adopted urging that the corporation cut all red tape and make these huts available, without delay, to any responsible body willing to convert them into housing accommodation, and that in all cases where municipalities have declined to take over huts, no sale be made until the Citizens' Committee of the area has been consulted."

Suit Priorities End Dec. 31 For Veterans

Priority suit-purchase certificates will not be issued to ex-servicemen after Oct. 30, according to the Retail-Wholesale Bulletin of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

Retailers and merchant tailors will be required, however, to honor the certificates up to the end of December, and retailers will have a further two months in which to use the certificates to replace suits sold to veterans.

A former army hut will be moved from Sidney to McKenzie Avenue School to be converted into a classroom, it is announced from the School Board office. It is expected to be moved early next week, but it will probably take another week to make it ready for occupancy.

Hudson's Bay Girls B.C. Fastball Champs

Coach Ivan Temple's Hudson's Bay girls fastballers checked in with a double-victory over Vancouver's Army and Navy Stores nine in the mainland city over the weekend to bring back to Victoria the provincial senior B women's championship.

The Bay girls, playing heads-up ball came out of the first engagement winners by a 11 to 4 count. They had a tougher job in the second tussle, but managed to come out on top 5 to 4.

It was a sweet twin triumph for Flo Kennedy doing the twirling assignments for the Bays' more club. The A. & N. opposition managed to get to her for eight hits in the opening game, but she held them down to a quartette of safeties in the second.

The Bays paved their way to victory in the first game with a big second-inning attack when they pushed over eight runs. Locals started off in this frame by loading the sacks. A hit brought in the first run, a walk brought in another. Vancouver changed pitchers, but to no avail. A two-bagger hit drove in a pair of runs and then when the bags were again loaded, third-sacker Mickey Patterson poled out a homer to bring the Bays' run total in this inning to eight.

VICKY LYLE HITS WINNER

The second engagement was a nip-and-tuck affair from start to finish. Going into the last of the seventh the H.B.C. were all even with their opponents at 4 to 4. In this frame Bays' Mary Manson doubled and then stole third and it was here that Vicky Lyle, playing right field in the nightcap, smashed out a hit to bring in the run that gave the Bays their second win and the B.C. title. Two of Vancouver's runs in this game were provided through a pair of homers by Little Ruth Murray, H.B.C. first baseman, pulled off a couple of sensational catches in her position to prevent overthrows.

SOCCER WORKOUT

Guy Lombardo Wins Speedboat Classic

DETROIT (AP)—Canadian-born band leader Guy Lombardo, winning every one of the 90-mile races three heats, captured speed boat racing's international gold cup Monday with his Tempo VI, winner of the same race in 1939 under the colors of Zalmor Simmons.

Lombardo, a native of London, Ont., averaged a record 68.128 miles an hour in winning the first postwar renewal of the classic, last run in 1940.

Dr. Bigelow Second In Jasper Tourney

JASPER, Alta.—It was Pacific Coast day at the 17th annual Totem Pole golf tournament here Monday when golfers from that region put their tickets on several prizes. In a field that numbered 200 women and men, R. H. Cleat, Vancouver, turned in a card of 75 to win the qualifying round medal, with Dr. George Bigelow, Victoria, runner-up with 79.

Play marked the first renewal of the famous Totem Pole golf tournament since the war, as the last tournament was held in 1941.

In the international team match played concurrently with the qualifying round, Vancouver No. 1 team, was victorious with a score of 508. The team was S. Thompson 88, R. H. Cleat 75, Ed Forst 86, Knox Walker 84, Reg Arkell 83 and Dr. Webster 92.

The medical trophy, competed for by members of the medical profession, was won by Dr. Bigelow.

Speedboat Races Thrill Big Crowd At Shawnigan Lake

International speedboat races between members of the Vancouver Island and Seattle outboard associations provided many thrills for the large crowd at Shawnigan Lake yesterday afternoon.

Lloyd Jett of Seattle, who piloted his 135 cubic inch displacement inboard across the straits from Seattle rather than miss this inaugural meet, put on a great show for the public, winning the event for 135 cu. in. class, and coming to grief later in an open race for inboards when his machine flipped over throwing Jett into the lake and breaking two of his ribs.

Outboards put on by far the best performance, and provided the keen competition the fans wanted.

The races were not a full regatta as ordinarily sponsored by the V.I.O.A. and some cups were left unchallenged.

Results follow:

First race—135 cu. in. inboard for the Spencer Cup, Lloyd Jett, Joe Holroyd, Brock Robertson.

Second race—C service outboards for the Batchelor Cup, Bert Proctor, Johnny Sheriff.

Fourth race—C hydroplanes for the Joker trophy, Ben Benson, Seattle.

Seventh race—Outboards open for the Jacob Aaronson Cup, Ben Benson of Seattle.

Joe Holroyd of Victoria took the Van Dyke Trophy for the fastest local boat in the time trials, as well as a special Vancouver Island Coach lines prize.

Play marked the first renewal of the famous Totem Pole golf tournament since the war, as the last tournament was held in 1941.

In the international team match played concurrently with the qualifying round, Vancouver No. 1 team, was victorious with a score of 508. The team was S. Thompson 88, R. H. Cleat 75, Ed Forst 86, Knox Walker 84, Reg Arkell 83 and Dr. Webster 92.

Victoria 'Y' Tracksters Lift Six Championships At Nanaimo

Spike Dalziel grabbed the lion's share of the laurels lifted by Victoria's Flying "Y" track and field team, coached by former Olympic star Bruce Humber, in the revival of the Nanaimo Labor Day B.C. championships meet in the up-island city yesterday.

The local performers ran and jumped their way to victory in a half a dozen of the title events. In addition they scored eight times in second place and placed third three times.

Dalziel was in fine jumping form and collected the Junior boys' broad and high jump provincial titles. He also placed third in the 100 and 220-yard junior sprints in the well-run holiday attraction.

Cliff Salmond was outstanding in the distance events. He placed first in the 880 junior race, beating the senior time over the same route by a clear two minutes. Don Wilson cleared 11 feet to top the field in the senior pole vaulting and also finished second in the senior broad jump.

Elaine Silburn, the only Victoria fair sex participant, was another who came through with a title. She covered the best distance in the senior women's broad jump and checked in as second best in the high jump. The senior relay team of Harry Mitchell, Bobby Sam, Bill Thompson and Dalziel copped the honors in the 440 yards senior relay event. Bill Thirwell won the senior high jump and posted a second in the broad jump for lads in the same age group.

Mitchell was still suffering from an injured leg, which restricted his activity for the day. However, besides being a member of the winning senior relay team he was second in the 100-yard senior dash. Senior Joe Isherwood was a double-second man, finishing runner-up in the 220 and 440 events. Bill Thompson was third in the senior broad jump and Bill Troupe second in the senior half mile.

Archie McKinnon today reported that the track and field team will organize into a club complete with officers and hold regular workouts throughout the winter to keep in trim for potential meets during cold and wet months indoors in Vancouver. Construction of an indoor track in Vancouver is planned, he said.

Cards Sweep Twin Bill

Brazle Pitching Hero

National League fans long may remember the 1946 pennant race as the "bath of the bullpen" with manager Eddie Dyer of St. Louis uncovering Al Brazle as his latest relief ace to match Leo Durocher's crew of firemen.

The lean left-hander's greatest day of the season came yesterday when he received credit for both ends of a double win over Cincinnati, 6 to 4 and 8 to 7, although he, too, needed help from the bullpen in the late stages of the second game.

The twin victories re-established the Cards' lead at 2½ games because Brooklyn, after winning the opener from the Phillies, 5 to 2, ran afoul of Oscar Judd's left arm and dropped the 3 to 2 finale. Judd, a native of Ingersoll, Ont., gave up seven hits in earning his ninth victory of the season.

New York's largest crowd of the season, 73,551, paid, watched Boston sweep both games from New York Yankees, 5 to 2 and 3 to 1, moving the Sox toward a mathematical flag clinching with a 1½ game lead.

Little Rollo Wins Longacres Feature

SEATTLE (AP)—Seattle-owned Little Rollo, who finished a disappointing last in the $20,000 Longacres Mile a week ago, came back Monday to win the $10,000 Governor's Handicap in the season's closing day feature at Longacres track.

Little Rollo led all the way, but beat off a closing challenge of Can Jones by a nose. The winning time for the mile and one-sixteenth was 1:43.15, just 45 off the track record. Bold Impulse was third.

The winner, third choice of the bettors, paid $10.90; $5.90 and $3.70 on a $2 mutuels ticket.

of Chicago, heading for "horse of the year" honors, set a record in winning the $57,400 Washington Park Handicap, running the rugged mile and a quarter in 2:01 to knock four-fifths of a second off the mark established by Busher in winning the event a year ago.

George Robson, Indianapolis Speed Champ, Dies In Crash

ATLANTA (AP)—Daring George Robson, whose roaring racing car carried him to the peak of fame in his sport, and George Baerlinger of Indianapolis crashed to their deaths on the one-mile dirt track at Lakewood Park Monday.

The two speed drivers lost their lives in a smash-up and dust-hidden pile-up of six racers on the northwest turn of the strip.

They were seeking new honors in a 100-mile Labor Day grind,

Legion Defeats V.M.D. To Open Baseball Final

Canadian Legion held a one-game lead today in the best-of-seven series for the city baseball championship and possession of the Rithet Cup. After winning their semifinal series with the Eagles yesterday afternoon with an 8 to 1 win, the Legion came back at night to rounce the V.M.D., league winners, 15 to 2, behind the six-hit twirling of Bill Prior.

The Legion and V.M.D. will resume their playoff with the second game Friday night.

It marked the third straight win for the Legion over the Eagles. Veteran Lloyd Cann held the lodgement to five hits while his teammates picked up 13 off Stan Curry and Phillips. Sonny Walker paced the Legion with five hits in as many trips to the plate, including a double.

After gaining a 4 to 2 lead over seven innings against the V.M.D. the Legion made a walk-away of it with five runs in the eighth and six in the ninth. Prior struck out 14 and only two of the six hits he gave up went out of the infield. Jimmy Dumeah, on the mound for the shipyarders, fanned 12 but ran into a streak of wildness, giving up eight walks. The V.M.D. were charged with eight errors.

In an exhibition game Sunday the V.M.D. defeated the Sand Point Naval Air Station nine from Seattle 2 to 1.

Short scores follow:

Eagles	1	5	3
Legion	8	13	0
Batteries—Curry, Phillips, and Phillips, Bertrand; Cann and Andrews.
Legion	15	17	2
V.M.D.	2	6	8
Batteries—Prior and Smith; Dumeah and Sutherland.

Johnston-Fea Win Yarrow Cup Bowling

Peter Johnston and Charlie Fea of the Victoria West Club won the Yarrow Cup, emblematic of the Vancouver Island lawn bowling doubles championship Monday, with a 19 to 12 win over A. Wallace and H. Davies, Canadian Pacific Club, on the latter's home greens.

In the semifinals Johnston and Fea beat D. Hamilton and D. Naysmith, while Wallace and Davies eliminated R. Stewart and R. McKenzie.

He scored birdies on the 16th and 17th holes to finish one stroke ahead of Chick Harbert, Detroit.

Tied for third at 277 were the United States open champion, Lloyd Mangrum, Los Angeles-Chicago, and Herman Keiser, Akron, Ohio, both of whom shot 70s yesterday.

A. W. Harvey Wins Port Alberni Derby

PORT ALBERNI—In the open derby held here Sunday by the Port Alberni Tye Club, A. W. Harvey landed a 44-pound spring salmon to win the first prize of a rowboat. Second prize went to N. Zailo with a 43½-pound fish.

Other prize winners, along with the weight of their fish, follow:

Bryce Blake 37½, Ron Gray 28, D. Moore 28½, Ben Bodnar 32½, B. Howard 18, C. Tassie Sr. 33, C. D. Bigelow, Olympia, Wash., 24½, M. Conden 28½, C. Magnuson 33 and B. Mitchell, Vancouver, B.C., 33½.

Vancouver Girls In Fastball Victory

EDMONTON (CP)—Wynn Myers served up 13 strikeouts and hit a homer Monday as Vancouver Ballards defeated Medicine Hat Legionettes 4 to 1 in the opening game of round-robin play between fastbal teams of the four western provinces for the women's western Canada fastball championship.

Ballards scored two runs in the fourth on hits by Kay McBeth and Kay Campbell and got two more in the seventh on Miss Myers homer with none on and a one-bagger that brought Joyce Hurchman home.

A's Split Two Games; Bremerton Plays Here

Victoria Athletics were back home today to open their final Western International League baseball home stand of the season at the Athletic Park tonight against Bremerton Bluejackets. Single games will be played through to Thursday after which the A's will depart for Yakima to wind up their schedule, playing their last games Sunday.

In Vancouver yesterday the Victoria team split the holiday doubleheader with Vancouver Capilanos, winning the afternoon clash 7 to 6 in 10 innings and dropping the nightcap, 7 to 4.

In the afternoon game the A's moved into a 3 to 0 lead in the first inning, with Vancouver tying the score in the third and moving ahead 6 to 4 in the fifth. A's got one run back in the sixth and tied it up in the eighth when Manager Ted Norbert, going in as a pinch hitter, drove over the tying run. After the A's had taken the lead in the top of the 10th, Vancouver loaded the bases with one away but pitcher Johnny Carpenter forced the next two batters to ground out and protect his margin. Carpenter was the third pitcher to work for the A's, Ferrara and Blankenship preceding him. Ferrara was thrown out of the game in the third inning by Umpire Regele for protesting a ball and strike count.

Pete Hughes and Jake Suytar hit home runs for the A's while Reg Clarkson punched a four-base blow for the Caps.

In the night game the Capilanos beat Bob Jensen for the second time in four days. The big right-hander got himself four strikeouts to boost his season total to 289. However, Jensen was wild, walking eight and cutting loose with two wild pitches. Vancouver put on a four-run scoring spree in the second inning, added one in the fifth and two in the seventh.

Paulson, Cherry and Raimondi all clouted home runs for the A's.

WENATCHEE CHAMPIONS

The Wenatchee Chiefs were chiefs, indeed, today with the league pennant scalp safely tucked away in their warbag.

The central Washington club clinched the class B 1946 season title last night with a double win over Spokane, 5 to 1 and 17 to 3, as the runner-up Salem Senators divided a double bill with Yakima.

Salem captured the opener from the Stars 15 to 3 but dropped the finale 5 to 4 to fall eight and one-half games behind the leaders with but seven games left on the schedule.

With the championship settled, only the remaining first division spots remained to be determined. Even those need only proper arrangement with Salem, Bremerton and Tacoma holding all but a mathematical noose on the upper berths.

Tacoma edged into the third spot for a short while last night with a 4 to 3 win over Bremerton in the opening game, but gave it up after Bremerton took advantage of seven Tacoma errors for an 8 to 6 triumph in the finale.

WINNIPEG (CP)—Montreal Alouettes, living up to the reputation which preceded them west, routed Winnipeg Blue Bombers 24 to 0 Monday night in the second game of a two-game exhibition Canadian football series and revenge their 17 to 6 defeat.

Program Announced
By Little Theatre

Eight evenings of entertainment, including four three-act plays, will be given during the Victoria Little Theatre's 1946-47 season accounted today by the directors. Members will be admitted without charge.
Opening the season in October will be a workshop evening, including both musical and dramatic numbers. In November the mystery-drama "Suspect" which had a long New York run will be presented.
Seventh annual Solarium show to which members bring Christmas gifts for the crippled children will take place in December. "A Quiet Wedding," the modern comedy, will be given in January. Other productions are scheduled for February, March, April and May.
Directors point out that newcomers will be welcomed as members with anyone given the opportunity of taking an active part. Actors, actresses, directors, scene painters, designers, carpenters and electricians are all needed.
Membership tickets may be obtained at the Marionette Library or from the secretary-treasurer at the Bank of Montreal.

B-A WINS AGAIN
all five speedboat races

The speedboat champions again turned to B-A for gasoline and oil for the 1946 races. The winning drivers in the official A.P.B.A. races held at Barrie, Gravenhurst, Belleville, Picton and Valleyfield, all used B-A Gasolines and B-A Peerless Motor Oil.

Racing is the supreme test for boat, engine, fuel, oil, and the driver. It takes real stamina and quality to win. Racing punishes the engine and the driver. B-A Gasolines and B-A Peerless Motor Oil came through these tests with flying colors.

B-A Peerless Ethyl Gasoline is quick-starting—full of power—economical. B-A Peerless Motor Oil is tough... protects motors... reduces friction... retards oxidation... flows freely and maintains its body at all temperatures... It's Alloyed!

Get these high-quality products from the dealers who display the B-A sign. There you get dependable B-A service which protects you and your car.

Remember B-A is the choice of champions.

Glen Hawkins New Soap-Box Champion

Glen Hawkins, 1538 Amphion Street, won a new bicycle and the Blue Line Cup Monday morning when he piloted his engineless ja'lopy down Ryan Street hill to cross the finish line first in the grand final of the annual soapbox derby.

Sponsored by the Knights of Pythias, the meet attracted 31 entries and a large crowd of parents and friends and non-competing children. The models entered were of good quality and a credit to the workmanship of the boys who built them.

Billy Fairall was next to Hawkins in crossing the finish line in the grand championship closing race and E. Murray McIntyre finished third.

Charlie Flinton won the special cup presented by the Blue Line for the smartest model racing job, while Mary Carley received a special award for being the only girl entry. There was also a prize for the youngest competitor, Neil Crockett, aged seven years. Norman Wilkinson, who placed first in the second flight, was judged by city police to be the best handler of a car.

First flight winners—1, Dick Willoughby; 2, Dennis Poole; 3, James McConnell.

Second flight winners—1, Norman Wilkinson; 2, Douglas Robertson; 3, Bob Jobbing.

expressed thanks to Inspector Robert Owens of the Provincial Police, the Victoria City Police, and St. John Ambulance Brigade, for their co-operation in running the meet. Inspector Owens presented the prizes at the conclusion of the competitions.

Members of the committee were: Mr. Abbott, W. Marshall, W. Jones, Neil Butler, Johnny Scouler, Al Morgan, G. Hawkins and Harold Stevenson.

Esquimalt House Almost Destroyed

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald McAllister, 1411 Esquimalt Road, was almost completely destroyed by fire which broke out at 6.30 Monday evening.

Esquimalt firemen assisted by navy fire-fighters from Esquimalt had the blaze under control shortly after arriving at the scene, although flames continued to leap from the house for nearly an hour.

The fire was believed to have started in the kitchen of the house. It was the first major fire in the municipality for several months and was the only fire of any size which occurred in Greater Victoria over the holiday week-end.

Committed For Trial

Gavin M. Sinclair was committed for trial in higher court with consent after waiving preliminary hearing when he appeared in city police court today on charges of unlawfully attempting to procure drugs by a forged document.

Prospective students of the University of British Columbia will risk being rejected for the fall term this year if they do not register in person between the dates of Sept. 12 and 20. The expected enrollment of over 8,000 students has necessitated a new method of registration by an "assembly-line" process in the University Armories. All students attending U.B.C. for the first time must register in person between Sept. 12 and Sept. 18. Others will be allowed until the 20th. First-term fees must be paid at the time of registration.

5 Accidents In Heavy Traffic Over Holiday Week-End

Five automobile accidents were reported in the city during the heavy flow of holiday traffic over the week-end, but injuries resulting were not serious. B.C. police and police of the municipalities reported "all was quiet."

A sixth accident occurred this morning in the city in which two women passengers in a car suffered bruises and shock. They were Mrs. C. Winchester, 1259 Pandora Avenue, and Mrs. Mary Corsey, 2124 Oregon Avenue.

In the week-end accidents, Thomas Craycroft, 846 1/2 Yates Street, a 14-year-old boy, went to hospital suffering from rib injuries as the result of a collision between the bicycle he was riding and a car backing from the curb on Yates Street near Blanshard Street, at 4.15 Monday afternoon.

In another mishap early Sunday morning, Evelyn Hart, Colwood, suffered cuts and bruises when a car in which she was a passenger hit a telephone pole on Gorge Road.

SPECTACULAR CRASH

Shortly before 9 Saturday night, a spectacular crash occurred in the 900 block of Pandora Avenue when a car which police said was driven by David E. Thomas, Colwood, hit a reflector pole, breaking it off, and continued over a boulevard to smash into a store. No one was injured.

Late Saturday night Mrs. Albert Henriksen, Gordon Head, suffered cuts to her head and nose when a car in which she was riding was in collision with another car at Yates and Douglas Streets.

Cars driven by Wiley Webster, 625 Fort Street and Louis Schmelz, 3059 Jackson Street, were damaged considerably in the fifth week-end accident which occurred at Belleville and Douglas Streets.

5 Burglaries Over Holidays

Five cases of burglary were reported by city police over the week-end but in only one was anything of value stolen.

A women's purse valued at $30 and three men's suits, each valued at $60, were stolen from a suite in Tweedsmuir Mansions, 900 Park Boulevard, it was discovered early Sunday morning. The burglar entered the suite through a bedroom window.

Nothing was stolen in the breaking and entering of the Roller Rink, Government and Cormorant Streets, Saturday night; a car storage building at 844 Fort Street, Sunday night, and the Civil Service Sports Club, 539 Superior Street, Sunday.

In the fifth burglary, a washroom at the rear of Lillian West's Bakery, 773 Fort Street, was broken into Sunday night and a wash basin was torn off the wall. Police discovered the entry and turned off the water before the premises were flooded.

Town Topics

Crowded Program For 'Monty' Here

Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery will face a crowded timetable when he arrives at Patricia Bay Air Station Wednesday morning at 11 for his brief visit to Victoria.

At the airfield, he will inspect an R.C.A.F. guard of honor. Then he will proceed by car to the Provincial Legislative Buildings. His program from there on is: 11.50—Inspect guard of honor at Legislative Buildings.

12—Meets provincial and civic officials.

12.10—Proceeds to Government House, to lunch with the lieutenant-governor.

1.40—Leaves for Patricia Bay, via Rockland Avenue, Cook, Yates, Douglas, Hillside, and Quadra.

2.20—Leaves Patricia Bay by air for Vancouver.

Ink, building inspector, Fire Chief Joseph Raymond, and Dr. J. L. Murray, city medical health officer.

The Town Planning Commission will meet at 7.30 next Friday in the City Hall. This will be the first meeting of the commission since summer recess of two months, Forrest L. Shaw, chairman, announced.

An induction service and reception for Rev. Y. C. Chow and family, who have come to Victoria in charge of the Chinese United Church in this city, will be held next Friday evening at 528 Fisgard Street.

"A Scotsman Looks at England" will be the subject of the talk to be given by W. B. Grant at the quarterly meeting of the Royal Society of St. George at St. Michael's School, Oak Bay, Wednesday at 8. Miss D. H. White will also speak, taking "Herefordshire" as her theme. K. C. Symons will be chairman. A poetry selection will be given by Mrs. Chappell and one of prose by Mrs. Bertha Parsons. V. L. Symons will sing solos.

Trawler Complaints Become Involved

OTTAWA (CP)—It is reported on Parliament Hill that the complaints of Nova Scotia schooner skippers about marauding foreign trawlers have become linked with the broader picture of international relations, particularly those with Spain.

Government spokesmen have handled parliamentary questions gingerly. Spain, France and Portugal—as well as Newfoundland, the United States and Canada have been named as the home countries of ships fishing off the Quere Bank, but nobody in the government has taken the responsibility for saying just which ships were responsible for damaging Canadian fishing gear in broad daylight.

In their reluctance, they have the alibi that the skippers themselves have been unable to identify the offenders positively. Other indications have pointed the finger at the Spaniards, at least in some of the incidents.

But in dealing with Spain, the External Affairs Department is faced with the necessity of working through the British Foreign Office. Canada has no representative in Franco's capital.

Record Attendance At Saanich Fair

Highland dancing, and piping contests were among a variety of attractions at Saanich Fall Fair. A large crowd is shown watching the Scotch lassies perform.

Six thousand persons flocked to Saanichton Agriculture Hall and grounds Monday and enjoyed to the fullest a wide variety of displays and contests in the North and South Saanich Agricultural Society's 78th annual fall fair. It was the largest attendance the exhibition has ever had and nearly doubled last year's gate figures which set a record up to that time.

Maj. Gen. G. R. Pearkes, V.C., M.P., opened the fair at 2.15 in the afternoon, but long before that the crowds began to arrive. Weather conditions were ideal all day long and operation were kept busy visiting the many exhibits from the farms and watching numerous competitions. It was a tired but happy crowd which left the fair grounds at the close of the day.

James Turner, Royal Oak, took top honors in the work horse contests and won the Dr. S. F. Tolmie Challenge Cup for exhibiting the best team of horses. He also showed the best single horse.

WINS FOUR PRIZES

Ralph Rendle of Cadboro Bay won four prizes in the cattle exhibits. His entries included the junior champion cow, best produce of dam, two animals any age, best get of sire, three animals, and best show herd.

Entries of H. G. Robinson, Royal Oak, were judged grand champion and senior champion in the cow division.

Mr. Turner, whose horses were judged best, entered a ram which won the championship in the sheep division. Champion ewe was entered by J. M. Taylor, Sidney.

First prize in the family pen class of the sheep division was won by Mr. Turner's R. Derrinberg, Saanichton, was second.

A competition for children under 16 years entering pet rabbits was won by Jimmy Harries with Larry Alexander second and Patricia Johnston third.

Arthur Adams, Lake Hill, had the best male bird in the poultry

Young Ken Aylard exhibits his docile little calf, which took second place honors in the under-one-year class.

show. G. S. Eden had the best female bird.

Herbert Barton, Saanichton, entered the best dozen brown eggs and also the best three dozen.

Patricia Johnston, Patricia Bay, and W. G. Burch, Shelbourne Street, Victoria, won first prizes in the pumpkin.

Mrs. Henderson Lawrie was winner and Mrs. E. G. DiRousse was second in the fancy work class of the embroidery exhibition for women over 70 years of age.

Mrs. William Casey, Saanichton, won a cup donated by Mrs. G. R. Pearkes for winning highest number of points in the flower division. Mrs. A. R. Anderson, Royal Oak, had the best collection of bottled plums, the best collection of small fruits, the best collection of canned vegetables, and the best collection of jams.

Household arts prizes were won by Mrs. R. E. Nimmo, Mrs. A. Adams, Mrs. Ruddell Crawford and Mrs. W. Carmichael. Winners in the layer cake class were Mrs. James Turner and Mrs. A. Adams. Fruit cake prizes went to Mrs. George Robinson Jr., Royal Oak; Miss Alice Holyoake, Saanichton; Mrs. C.

CAPITOL THEATRE

Kathryn Grayson and Lauritz Melchior render operatic arias in the M-G-M musical, "Two Sisters From Boston," new attraction at the Capitol Theatre.

ROYAL THEATRE

Reported to be Bob Hope at his screwiest, Paramount's satiric version of Booth Tarkington's "Monsieur Beaucaire" is currently at the Royal Theatre.

YORK THEATRE

One of the real treats of the 1946 crop of all-color pictures is "God's Country," now at the York.

RIO THEATRE

Bette Davis and John Garfield play the toughest roles of their screen careers in Warners' newest musical hit, "Hollywood Canteen," currently at the Rio.

OAK BAY THEATRE

Paramount's loveliest girls can hold their own in any competition but when they're photographed in technicolor for "Bring On The Girls," now showing at the Oak Bay, the result is overwhelming.

ATLAS THEATRE

Warners' "Janie Gets Married," is currently at the Atlas with Joan Leslie and Robert Hutton in the starring roles.

L. Styan, Royal Oak; and Mrs. J. T. Godfrey, Saanichton.

In the vegetable and fruit division W. G. Burch, Shelbourne Street, Victoria, exhibited the best box of potatoes, and also the best collection of vegetables; Mrs. E. Lee had the best collection of apples, Mrs. H. R. Gale the best plate of apples and C. E. Jeffery the best plate of pears.

PROSPECT SCHOOL WINS

In school work exhibited Prospect Lake had a display featuring a study of the British Empire which included a cleverly constructed map on which light bulbs lit up when proper connection were made between name and place. Royal Oak was second in this class and Keating School third. Deep Cove School displayed several panels which were excellently done and highly commended.

Saddle horse competitions under the direction of Dr. S. F. Miles had record entries and keen contests were seen. A huge exhibit from the Dominion Experimental Farm on the stage of the agriculture hall brought many admiring comments. T. Gray of Prospect Lake exhibited an outstanding floral display and A. Ingram, showed many high-grade rabbit skins.

PLAZA THEATRE

A very entertaining blend of comedy and music is cleverly presented in Universal's "Senorita from the West" which is now being shown at the Plaza, co-starring Allan Jones, Bonita Granville and Jess Barker.

Speaker at Wednesday's Canadian Club luncheon at the Empress Hotel will be Lt. Col. Harwood Steele, whose topic will be "Canada Looks at India." He is the son of the late Maj. Gen. Sam Steele, pioneer of the R.N.W.M.P. force. Col. Steele served in World War I with the British Army in India.
